

I'd just like to say, Thank you, from the bottom of my heart for your book, Classic Christianity. I've been a believer for 41 years, but am now seeing the total picture of the message of the Good News. Even though I thought I was a solid Christian, I can't believe that I've missed the significance of the message all these years—but not anymore!

My wife and I are going to go through it and the study guide together and I can't wait now to help our three kids get more firmly rooted in the truth. Something is really happening in my life at a time when it would be easy to give up. So, thank you, Bob.
